

SEPT. 2010 WHAT'S NEW AT BACKYARD BIRDS - PLYMOUTH ?

Sophie The Backyard Birds Cat wants to alert everyone that the annual Octobird Sale is coming up soon - in October, of course!

ALL BIRDFEEDERS, ALL SEED &
ALL SUET
WILL BE ON SALE DURING ALL OF OCTOBER.

Sophie is looking forward to seeing all her admirers at Octobird Sale time.

If you can't wait, you can get the Octobird Sale deal on seed, suet or a new feeder you buy in September by downloading our coupon from this web site.

You don't need any coupon in October to get the Octobird Sale prices.

In the meantime...

Well, here we go again with September and the annual seasonal changes that will soon occur here in Michigan! Grackles and Hummers are leaving. Cardinals, Chickadees, Blue Jays, Nuthatches & Goldfinches are staying!

Sept. 1st is the 15th anniversary of our opening of Backyard Birds. We are having an ANNIVERSARY SALE thru September 30th!

This special sale offers some really great savings on summer & garden merchandise. We bought way too much this spring. Come, take advantage of our over-buying and do some early Christmas shopping at our expense. Gazing globes, chimes, statues, birdbaths, and more, await you, with nice discounts attached. We are also including some birding merchandise in this special sale. Come on in and join our 15th Anniversary celebration!
